

In their own words

We are the Emmanu'-EL Apostolic Gospel Academy affectionately known as the EAGA Gospel Choir (pronounced 'Eager') established in 2003, a versatile group that performs under the patronage of the Emmanu'-EL Apostolic Church based in Leicester.

"It is our deepest pride and mission to uplift the spirits of the communities that surround us."

This is at the very centre of our hearts in everything we do and has led to an official recognition of our service to the community by The Lord Mayor of Leicester in 2015.

The choir has acclaimed national awards in being crowned the winners of the BBC Songs of Praise Gospel Choir of the Year 2023. Additionally, we have been honoured to sing on diverse platforms, including being the first Gospel Choir to sing for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, in Leicester on the occasion of her Jubilee!

"We have also performed alongside legendary Leicester band Kasabian on their 2016 tour and were backing singers for two songs on the band's album, For Crying Out Loud."

See you soon!
