I saw Jesus last week.

He was wearing blue jeans and an old shirt.

He was in the church building;

He was alone and working hard,

For just a minute, he looked a little like one of our congregation.

But it was Jesus,

I could tell by his smile

I saw Jesus last Sunday.

He was teaching a Bible class.

He didn't talk real loud or use long words,

But you could tell he believed what he said.

For just a minute,

he looked like my Sunday School teacher.

But it was Jesus,

I could tell by his loving voice.

I saw Jesus yesterday.

He was at the hospital

visiting a friend who was sick.

They prayed together quietly.

For just a minute,
he looked like Mrs Jones.

But it was Jesus,
I could tell by the tears in her eyes.

I saw Jesus this morning.
He was in my kitchen
making my breakfast
and cooking me a special lunch.

For just a minute,
he looked like my mum.

But it was Jesus,
I could feel the love from his heart.

I see Jesus everywhere,
Taking food to the sick,
Welcoming others to his home,
Being friendly to a newcomer
and for just a minute
I think he's someone I know.
But it's always Jesus,
I can tell by the way he serves.

May someone see Jesus in you today.

I Worried

I worried a lot.

Will the garden grow, will the rivers flow in the right direction, will the earth turn as it was taught, and if not how shall
I correct it?

Was I right, was I wrong, will I be forgiven,
can I do better?

Will I ever be able to sing, even the sparrows can do it and I am, well, hopeless.

Is my eyesight fading or am I just imagining it,
am I going to get rheumatism,
lockjaw, dementia?

Finally, I saw that worrying had come to nothing.
And gave it up.
And took my old body
and went out into the morning,
and sang.

READER'S RAMBLING

What's in a name?

Redcar, the town we love, and as I have pointed out many times, THE CENTRE OF THE UNIVERSE! Well, how did it get its name? Good question, - I'll have a stab at that, so here goes.

The Red bit of Redcar comes from Anglo Saxon/Old English and either means Red or Reed. The Car bit of Redcar comes from Carr, double 'R':

meaning: bog or fen, marsh, where scrub/willow has become established. It comes from Old Norse. So we get Redcar, the red marsh or the reed marsh.

Now Chris, why are you going on about the way Redcar got its name?

Well, I am glad you asked.

Very recently, I watched a TV programme looking at events from the Bible viewed through modern methods of Science, translation and archaeology.

One such event was Moses parting the Red Sea.

You may be ahead of me here, but recent developments in translation have led to an understanding that the Red Sea may be, more likely, the Reed Sea.

This has been identified as being a lake in Northern Egypt, Lake Manzala.

Known as the Reed Sea prior to becoming Manzala.

It's all down to how you read Yam-Suf, a bit like Red-Carr or Reed-Carr.

Back in 1882, a Major General of the British Army was employed by Lake Manzala and he wrote of an event he witnessed, the lake was there when he went to bed and the next day the wind had moved all the water away beyond his view.

Worth looking up - Major General Sir Alexander B. Tullock.

Archaeology in Egypt has turned up ancient inscriptions referring to the 'Shasu of Yahweh'. Shasu meaning Nomads, and Yahweh is the name of God used in the Hebrew scriptures. A name not to be over used, or used lightly.

There are Egyptian references to these people being in the North East of Egypt, in an area which relates to Goshen in the Bible. This area is where Joseph's family came to live, Joseph of the amazing coat fame. Goshen is near to Lake Manzala.

As for Shasu, it's an easy word for me to remember as it sounds the same as Char Siu, which is Chinese BBQ Pork, one of my favourites, with noodles, with anything really. NICE!

It's interesting how as Christians we sort of don't need proof of the events from the Bible because we have faith, and yet it really feels rather good when it comes along, whether it's for ourselves or others.

History, Archaeology and science are all there to help us understand ourselves, our past and where we are going to, and the world we live in.
Now add FAITH to those three and I believe we have Pilgrimage (2023 has been dedicated as the year of Pilgrimage).
And for me, that ties in so tightly with what Lent is.
Lent is there to help us understand ourselves, our past and where we are going to, and the world we live in, with and through our FAITH.

This month sees a couple of the National Patron Saint's days.

1st March is St. David's Day, patron saint of Wales

17th March is St. Patrick's Day, patron saint of Ireland.

Well, if you are Welsh, then David may well be Dafydd, Dai or Dewi to you.

And if you are Irish, then Patrick may well be Padraig.

If you're wondering what Peter is in Welsh, it's Pedr, and in Irish it's Peadar.

The saints of our faith come in two sorts, male and female and, whatever nationality we profess, they are our brothers and sisters, human beings, flesh and blood the same as us.

I wonder how we see Jesus.

I wonder what we call him.

Have a think on that through Lent see how you feel about Him on EASTER morning.

Here is a word: Tetragrammaton

(Gosh it's all Greek to me! Possibly Latin ????)

You may or may not know that at the last PCC meeting held in January I informed the members that I would be retiring from Reader Ministry after Holy Week.

Please may I thank you all for the guidance and support you have given me over the last 20years. I really and truly could not have done it without you.

I will still worship with my brothers and sisters at St. Peter's, I could I not, it's home!

God Bless you and keep you, Chris

Diary for March

Tuesday 7th 2.00pm-3.30pm Lent Special

As mentioned at our February meeting, we hope you will enjoy the first session of the 5 week Lent course chosen for the Parish this year - 'Not a Tame Lion'. You may find yourself enjoying it so much and come for the next 4!!

Wednesday 15th 7.15pm EMUs meet

Sunday 19th 10.00am Mothering Sunday at church

Saturday 25th Lady Day

This is the evening chosen by Teesside Hospice to hold its fundraising Midnight Walk of 11k from Redcar to Marske and back, and a number of our evening members are taking part. Please give your support if you are able.

Wednesday 29th 9.30am Corporate Communion (do wear your badges)

Hello Again!

Whether you are or are not a member of Mothers' Union I hope you enjoy following what our Branch is up too!! Firstly a BIG thank you for your support at the Coffee morning last month; Nearly £400 was raised in total and £200 will go to Mothers Union. Most of this will be sent to support the 2023 MU Make a Mothers' Day Appeal, and some for a different use, eg sponsoring a MU AFIA family holiday. This year the 'Make A Mother's Day' campaign is entitled 'Buying a Gift of Perseverance', giving desperately needed support to women families and communities in Burundi, where civil war has left deep scars, and where poverty is a daily reality or Uganda where MU is responding to the growing threat of gender-based violence by creating safe spaces where survivors can meet and be supported through their traumas. The other half of the money raised is going to the church and I know will be very much appreciated in this climate of ever-rising costs!!

Mothering Sunday this year is on the 19th March – why not come along to church? It isn't just about or 'for mothers', it is the whole family that is St. Peter's, recognising and rejoicing in the knowledge of God's love for each and every one of us as members of His family here on earth.

Perhaps we are not quite as energetic or as dynamic as we once were ( it does seem a long time since we tried belly dancing or organised a beach party) but we are a faithful and prayerful bunch of ladies for whom family, church and God mean an awful lot. We do lead more sedentary lives and are creatures of habit which is why we are once more having a 'Smarties Appeal' to raise further funds for the MU charities. If you haven't got your box yet please have a word with me (Anne). However, 'Yours truly' and churchwarden Daphne are among the small group who have decided to put our best foot forward and are taking part in a 'sponsored walk raising money for Teesside Hospice on 25th March. An evening walk on the night the clocks 'Spring forward' an hour! It would be lovely if you were able to sponsor us. I'm not sure how many of us will make the Sunday morning at 10! (I'm not even sure I can manage the 11km in one go but hey-ho, as a long standing member of the Girlguiding I will 'do my best!)

The month of March seems very much to be focussed on 'women' . Perhaps you are shouting HURRAH! And why not? 3rd March is the World Day of Prayer; an international ecumenical Christian laywomen's initiative. It is run under the motto "Informed Prayer and Prayerful Action," and is celebrated annually in over 170 countries. The movement aims to bring together women of various races, cultures and traditions in a yearly common Day of Prayer, as well as in closer fellowship, understanding and action throughout the year.

International Women’s Day falls on 8th March and the theme this year is that we all fully #EmbraceEquity. Worth a Google—they explain the difference between EQUALITY and EQUITY. Equality means that each individual is given the same resources and opportunities to help them succeed. Equity understands that each person and individual has different circumstances and life situations, which means resources need to be tailored to reach an equal outcome for everyone.

Mothers’ Union, in support for this worldwide campaign, have been asking our members and friends to send in photos of us giving ourselves a hug to show we are embracing equity. Watch out for an uplifting video to be released on International Women’s Day on the 8th March to show we are part of this worldwide movement.

God bless Anne x

BIRTHDAY GIRLS!

The EMUs organised a surprise party to celebrate Trudy and Daphne’s birthdays.

SENIOR BIRTHDAY GIRL!

Judy Appleby celebrated her 100th birthday at home with her family and visits from friends. The card (hand made by Rachel Harrison) celebrates just some of the things that have been important to Judy during her life— Girl Guiding, music, reading and the bible among them.

LADIES' WEDNESDAY GROUP

The "Life of an Airline Photographer" was the title of the talk given by Ted Parker, when he visited us in February. He gave a very detailed account of different aspects of Teesside Airport and the many problems they encountered getting this viable.

Due to the first Wednesday of April falling in Holy Week, we will have our next Meeting on the third Wednesday of the month.

Wednesday 19th April            'Tibet'   Sue Parker

Aspects of Yorkshire

Sitting in my armchair I heard the cold wind blow
Seeing the weather forecast promising more snow
Close the curtains tightly leave the world outside

Then I travel nightly memories my guide

Climb the hill to Haworth and walk across the Moor
Take the path the 'Brontes' took' many years before
See the summer sunshine light the Yorkshire Dales
On the banks of Wharfe and Nidd hear those fishing tales

Sitting in my armchair Yorkshire in my Heart

Memories of Yorkshire puds, thoughts of treacle tart
Climb the slopes of Whernside watch the sun arise
Count the stars from Pennyghent as the daylight dies
Sights and sounds around me sitting in my chair
Travelling through Yorkshire wishing I was there

Lots of activities and events have occurred lately. Thanks to Julie, and Tracy, librarians and all who were involved in Dormanstown Library Bake Sale. Also thanks to Friends Anne, Kay, Dot and Carrie for the baking. 'James Cakes and Bakes' contributed too. £220 was made altogether.

Thanks to Meadowvale Care Co and Andrew Jones for a brilliant get together for coffee and cake and lots of tea and bingo. The proceeds of the raffle were gratefully received. Borough Park coffee events continue at the Bowling Club and we were invited to sell our bric a brac and the sale was well supported. Thanks to Jackie and Mike Carling and all the team from the 'Rose garden.' All the money donated to the Friends Peter Rabbit Garden.

We will be at the cemetery on Mother's Day between 10.00am and 2.00pm. At present we are working in our craft group painting pebbles to give to visitors to put at the graveside. This event gives us the chance to meet many of the visitors, some who have recently become bereaved.

Our thoughts are with 94 year old Irene, one of our very experienced gardeners. She has been unwell and not able to work. We wish her a speedy recovery.

We will be at St Hilda's table top sale on Saturday, March 25th between 10.00am and 2.00pm The stall will have an Easter theme. There will be lots of items for sale with many other stalls and refreshments available.

We are trying a new venture as we are looking forward to doing a re-use wreath making workshop. We have saved the Christmas wreaths that have been used in the cemetery and we will be learning how to make them viable again.

A new newsletter is available now covering the months Jan – March. Kath will be bringing copies to St Peter's. We are looking forward to having a bric a brac stall at the coffee morning in April—thanks to Sandra and the team for the invitation.

The next two meetings of the above will be at 7.00pm on Thursday 2nd March and Thursday 30th March. It will again be held in the upstairs meeting room of St. Peter's Church, Redcar Lane, and will finish at 8.30pm or earlier. Guest speakers to be announced.

As usual there will be reports from Redcar local police officers, whereby we can also feed back any policing concerns we may have. There will also be the Parks Reports – a round up of what's currently happening in Redcar's parks – Zetland park, Green Lane, Holyhead park, Borough Road park, Redcar cemetery, the Lily Park and the paddling pool. Finally we will have Any Other Business where members can raise specific concerns or items of interest not covered by the agenda.

ST PETER'S 100 CLUB

The result of the February 2023 draw was:

No. 27                  Lindsey Dickinson                  £40

No. 102                  Fran Smith                  £10

Adam and Eve's True Nationality...

A Brit, a Frenchman and a Russian were viewing a painting of Adam and Eve frolicking in the Garden of Eden. "Look at that garden they are maintaining so well," mused the Brit. "They must be British." "Nonsense," the Frenchman disagreed. "They're naked, and so beautiful. Clearly, they are French."

"Ah, but no clothes, no shoes, no shelter," the Russian pointed out, "they have only an apple to eat, and they're being told this is paradise. They are Russian."

Carry On...

The vicar was making an appeal for more help with the Sunday School: "At the moment I'm just carrying on with a couple of single ladies!"

Breakdown...

Yesterday I broke down on the M1. One of those emergency trucks charged me £200 to pull me off. I think it was the abominable towman!

Labouring...

Curate: I can always tell when I am going to give birth to an idea for a sermon. My writer's cramps start coming two minutes apart.

Put It This Way...

Some people have a keen sense of rumour.

Some people's vocabulary is small, but their turnover is terrific.
